NEW CIVIL ENGINEER

Will Come Today to Work in Connection with R. E. Mitchell and Paving
Probably Will Go Along Smoothly.

The trouble over the paving contract on Main street, started several weeks ago, was brought to an abrupt end Monday as the result of more than a three hours' meeting between the street committee, corporation counsel, the engineer and the contractor. The members of the committee had little to say, all being reticent and reluctant to speak. Two members did speak, however, that everything had been amicably settled and that a new civil engineer, Mr. Reynolds of Waterbury, would arrive in the city today (Tuesday) and work in conjunction with City Engineer R. E. Mitchell. Information as to who would be the man to boss the job was not forthcoming, but it is believed that everything will move along smoothly on the Main street paving contract from now forward and that the work will be completed within a reasonable time.

Shower Was Short But Welcome.
The brisk shower of Monday evening, while not of long duration, was welcome to the tired and weary citizens of the city and did considerable good, but it is believed that everything will move along smoothly on the Main street paving contract from now forward and that the work will be completed within a reasonable time.

losses became periodical and he at last began to suspect that they were stolen. He finally caught a youngster from the Stone row in the act of getting away with a choice bird and made a complaint to police headquarters. Capt. E. H. Richmond got hold of the youngster, three in number, and had them call at the station house, where he gave them a fatherly lecture and deserved dressing down with warning words. The boys admitted their guilt but pleaded so earnestly and promised so faithfully that the captain allowed them to go, as Mr. Doolittle did not care to prosecute but simply wished the depredations on his turkey roasts and nest stopped.

CUT FINGERS WITH SICKLE.
George Williams, Unable to Find Doctor, Went to Hospital in ex-Lieut. Governor Lake's Automobile.

The automobile of ex-Lieut. Gov. Everett J. Lake, who was in the city, was pressed into service to do duty as an ambulance Monday morning. George Williams, janitor of the town building, while at work trimming up the borders of the town hall, cut his fingers to clip his fore and second fingers of his left hand with a sharp sickle. The curved blade cut clear to the bone and the fingers bled profusely. Mr. Williams hastened down the street, and attempted to procure medical aid but without avail, as he called at the offices of five different doctors and none was "at home," and then spying an automobile around which a bunch of men were congregated and in which ex-Senator Charles A. Gates, another man and the chauffeur were seated, he exclaimed, "I've cut myself! Take me to the hospital!" He was told to get in and the chauffeur with the skill of an expert made the run to St. Joseph's. Mr. Williams was here confronted with the same difficulty and could find no surgeons or physicians but the head nurse attended him and dressed the injured fingers. When Mr. Williams came out of the institution a few moments later he found that he had unceremoniously presented the ex-Lieut. Governor's automobile into emergency service and left Mr. Lake somewhere up on Main street, wondering where his chauffeur and the big machine had gone.

The politicians got together later, however, and all is said to have been harmonious when explanations were made. Mr. Williams will have a couple of sore fingers for several days, but he considers himself fortunate in not losing them completely.

How Manager Flannagan Feels About It.
P. J. Flannagan, the man who is at the head of the Meriden nine in the Connecticut baseball association, is quoted as saying when speaking of the strength of the teams in the league, "Fate him! Sure, home, we, them Middletown and Willimantic are regular athlete league teams."

The man who is familiar with baseball feels as Mr. Flannagan does, as all three, Middletown, Willimantic and New London, are actually a part of several of the teams in the Connecticut league. Willimantic is on top again and there are those who are willing to wager a bit that she will be in the same position Saturday night.

George R. Tripp's Self Out.
George R. Tripp, who has conducted a grocery store for the past seven or eight years in the Franklin Hall block on Main street, has sold out to William B. Iner on Monday and will retire. Mr. Tripp's son has been in company with his father for late years. The store was formerly run by Eliot G. Thompson. Mr. Iner was at one time a member of the Windham Garage company. He came here several years ago from Greenwich, Conn., at 175 Mansfield avenue and owns a number of houses in the city and other real estate.

Stole Wheel, Then Traded It for Sheep.
Complaint was made to the police by a man named Nichols, the latter part of the past week, that a safety bicycle had been stolen. The man who stole the wheel swapped it for a pair of sheep and sold the sheep to another fellow. Where is the bicycle? At last accounts the wheel was over in Hampton and the police are on its trail. The man who stole the wheel is also being swapped or sold as were the sheep. When the wheel is located the fellow that pinched it can be located without difficulty.

speakers from within the county. A splendid musical programme will be one of the features provided.

General Putnam Again in Commission
The General Putnam steamer of the Danielson fire department is again ready for service. That it was out of order was discovered several weeks ago at the Evans block fire, when a stream of water began to play out of it, drenching the crew, soon after the pump was started. It was used in this condition until the fire was under control, and the next day an investigation was made. It was discovered that the defective part was under the main pump, where a section had rusted out and that a new casting would be necessary to make the proper repairs. The cast has been all this time getting here. It was put in place Sunday and the machine is now as ready as ever for active service.

SAFETY VALVE FOR MAGNATES.
Nothing Serious, Just Satisfying, at E. C. League Directors' Meeting.

The directors of the Eastern Connecticut league did little more than discuss the status of certain players relative to their being of the "home" or "out of town" class when they got together in Danielson Sunday afternoon. No fines or suspensions will result from the meeting, which in reality served as a sort of safety valve for the magnates inasmuch as it afforded them the opportunity to say some things that they have been saving up for some time. Nothing serious, mind you—but just satisfying, and they all felt better after the session.
